

PE overview for implementation September 2014

Some of the funding currently available to Primary schools for Physical Education is being used to purchase a new scheme of work and to train our teachers. This will not only ensure that we comply with the New National Curriculum, but also give us the opportunity to enrich our PE teaching across the school.