Imperative verbs are also known as bossy verbs because they tell you what to do. We put them at the beginning of a sentence, which changes

Imperative verbs (or Bossy verbs) are used at the beginning of a sentence to change it into a command. They are usually used in recipes and instructions to tell somebody how to do something.

First, mix in one teaspoon of _____.

Next, stir in a bowl of _____.

Then, add a pinch of _____.

After that, sprinkle two cups of _____.

Finally, add a lot of _____.

This could be your starting point.
